HARYANA ASSEMBLY POLLS | Congress workers asked to do two things before the state elections due in October

Expose BJP's failures, says Hooda to party

PTI
CHANDIGARH
With the Haryana Assembly polls a few months away, Congress leader Bhupinder Singh Hooda Sunday asked party workers to "expose the BJP government's failures" in the last 10 years.
As the Congress wrested five of the 10 Lok Sabha seats from the ruling BJP in the recently held general elections, the former chief minister expressed gratitude to workers and told them to gear up for the state polls.
Addressing the Congress workers in Karnal, the Leader of the Opposition in the Haryana Assembly said,

"You should expose the failures, false promises, corruption during the BJP government's 10-year rule in the state by going to every home." The assembly polls in Haryana are due in October.
Commenting on Congress' performance in Haryana in the Lok Sabha polls, Hooda said, "This is just a beginning, the real fight lies ahead. We should not stop, nor bow down, we should just keep moving forward till the goal is achieved."

He then told the party workers that they have to do two things before the assembly polls. "The BJP has been ruling Haryana for nearly 10 years now. They have pushed the state backward on developmental parameters. You have to take their failures to every home. You have to expose their lies, falsehood and corruption which took place during this regime. And the question has to be asked: what did this government do in 10 years?"

"Second, the work of the previous Congress government in 10 years has also to be taken to every home and what the party intends to do has to be told," he said.
Hooda said when the Congress was in power, Haryana was number one in per capita income, per capita investment, law and order, sports and in giving jobs.
"Today, it (state) is number one in record unemployment, inflation, law and order breakdown, and this comparison has to be made when our workers visit every home," he said.

58 children rescued from MP distillery

RAISEN
As many as 39 boys and 19 girls were rescued from a distillery in Madhya Pradesh's Raisen district, an official said on Sunday. The National Commission for Protection of Child Rights (NCPCR) with the Association of Voluntary Action, also known as Bachpan Bachao Andolan (BBA), led the crackdown at Som Distillery on Saturday, a release stated.
A team led by NCPCR chairman Priyank Kanoongo rescued 58 children, 19 girls and 39 boys, from Som Distillery. "Children bore burn wounds on their hands from exposure to harsh chemicals and alcohol. They were transported daily by their employer in a school bus and worked 12-14 hours daily," the BBA stated.
In a post on 'X', Chief Minister Mohan Yadav said the raid at the factory was a serious matter. "Received detailed information from the labour, excise and police departments, and direction has been given for taking appropriate action. Strict action will be taken against the guilty," Yadav wrote.

Kids disappear
On Sunday, the NCPCR chairman in a post on X said that 39 boys and teenagers employed in the liquor factory had disappeared. Kanoongo was quoted in an India Today report where he said that the culprits made use of the darkness and took the children. "We do not know if the kids have been kidnapped, abducted, or allured. The FIR was registered under bailable sections. The various kinds of compensation amounting to Rs 5-10 lakhs that were supposed to be given cannot be given now," he said.

Matrimony site to pay ₹25k for not finding bride

ONLINE REPORT
ERNAKULAM
A district consumer disputes redressal forum (DCDR) at Ernakulam, Kerala, recently ordered Kerala Matrimony to pay 25,000 as compensation plus costs to a man who alleged that the matrimonial services website had failed to deliver on its promise to find him a bride, according to Bar and Bench.
District forum President DB Binu and members Ramachandran V and Sreevidhya TN passed the order on May 15 after concluding there was deficiency of service on Kerala Matrimony's side. The forum added that the complainant was one of several 'victims' of the matrimonial website, going by public opinions from social media that were produced by the complainant to support his case. The court said, "The opposite party had given attractive displays to catch the attention of the seekers of required and had not provided necessary services to them and the opposite party have not produced any evidence to prove that they have provided the promised service to the complainant."
